Text ལྷོ་བཞུགས།

I am six years old. I have a pet lamb. He is like a puppy. All my family members like him, except my little niece. She doesn't like my pet lamb. Sometime my lamb steals her candy. We play together.

We climb a mountain so my pet lamb can eat grass. At the same time I and my niece pretend to eat grass as well. I carry a bag for my pet lamb and my niece. Inside the bag are two bottles. One is for my pet lamb. The other one is for my niece. We play with other children. We swim in the river. My pet lamb does not swim very well.

Time passes. We love each other. We can't separate. After school I run back home to see him.

One foggy day, I herd yaks on the grassland near my tent. My pet lamb looks for me. He is lost in the fog. I go home. I do not see my pet. I ask Mother "Where is my pet lamb?"

Mother says, "He tries to find you."

My heart is very cold. I cry and run to find him. I can not find him. Hours pass. It is evening. I find him in a hole. He baas quietly. He can't breathe easily. I am worried. I pull him out the hole. I am so happy. I hug him. I carry him home. I play with him.
